Features of memory of persons with speech disorders lecture? Ladeyko V. D.

Questions

- Features of memory for disorders of the pronunciation side of speech
- Features of memory for systemic speech disorders
- Features of memory of persons with stuttering

Features of memory for disorders of the pronunciation side of speech

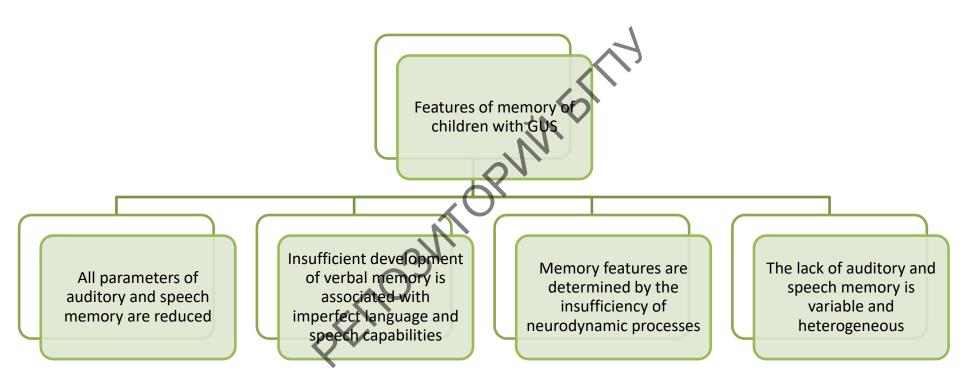

General regularity

- Better developed motor memory
- The predominance of semantic memory over mechanical memory
- Positive dynamics of memorization

Specific regularity

- Low productivity of long- term memory
- Monotonous dynamics of the increase in the number of reproduced units in auditory short- term memory

Features of memory for systemic speech disorders

Features of memory for systemic speech disorders

Memory features of children with motor alalia

Narrow volume of memorized materia

Reduced fidelity of verbal stimuli

Weak retention strength of speech signals

Features of memory of persons with stuttering

