

Still life

Fedorenko Taisa Andreevna,
Senior Lecturer,
Department of Special
Education

GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS

Still life is a work of art. Semantic and emotion content in still life is revealed through images selected by the artist. There are a number of options for compositional solutions (the arrangement of images and objects)

Types of still life according to the meaning solution

- ▶ Simple still life. It includes images of different items which combine one generic concept, for example, different vegetables (fruits, dishes, etc.).
- ▶ Mixed still life. It includes images of items which belong to different generic concepts (for example, vegetables and utensils, vegetables and fruits, etc).

Types of still life according to the colour solution

- ▶ – chromatic
- ▶ –achromatic

Types of still life according to the performance technique

- ▶ -painting
- ▶ -graphics
- ▶ -appliqué
- ▶ -collage
- ▶ -mixed technique

